AN INTRODUCTION TO BIRCHALL

The Birchall Trust empowers people affected by rape, sexual abuse, sexual violence or exploitation to recover from their trauma so they can lead safe and fulfilling lives irrespective of gender identity, sexuality, ethnicity, culture, or religion. We believe that we should live in a society that is free of rape, sexual abuse, and sexualised violence and through a trauma informed approach we...

- Realise the potentially damaging consequences of traumatic experiences and the opportunities that exist for healing through safe relationships.
- Recognise the signs of trauma, and seek to address the underlying causes
- Respond with empathy, integrating the knowledge of trauma into our policies and practice.
- Resist retraumatising people and aim to deescalate the deep anxiety that adversity can cause.

Assisting people to recover from their trauma, by enabling them to live in the present without being overwhelmed by the thoughts and feelings of the past.

OUR CORE TRAUMA INFORMED VALUES

Our values align to the core trauma informed principles around:

Safety	We recognise the impact of shame, we create safe spaces and make people feel safe, by building trusted relationships.
Trusted	We avoid judgement and understand shaming and blaming language can damage people and harm relationships. We are emotionally aware. We avoid blame. We believe and do not judge.
Choice	We ensure that the people using our services have a voice and their choices are important, we understand that everyone's experience matters, and that recovery is an individual experience and will be different for everyone.
Collaboration	We work together to achieve the best possible outcome, we are person centred and see the person's strengths, building upon them, we are reflective and learn together
Empowerment	We seek to make a difference, innovative and be the change we want to see. We make a difference, we are transparent, and take responsibility. We develop resilience enabling people to build on their strengths.

JOB DESCRIPTION

PAGE 02

Role:	Adult Freelance Counsellor.
Accountable to:	Head of Services.
Base:	East Lancashire (The ability to travel will be required).
Salary:	£35 per hour.
Hours:	Freelance - minimum of 5 clients up to maximum of 10.

ABOUT THE ROLE

We are currently seeking an experienced adult therapist or counsellor to join our dedicated team at The Birchall Trust. In this role, you will provide specialist support, counselling, and therapeutic services to adults who have experienced sexual abuse, rape, or sexualised violence.

This is a meaningful opportunity to make a real difference in the lives of survivors, offering trauma-informed care that promotes healing and empowerment. Alongside one-to-one therapy, there is scope to deliver pre-trial counselling and pre-counselling assessments. You may also work with friends, family members, carers, and professionals, helping them to better understand the impact of sexual abuse and improve the support available to those affected.

We have service bases across Accrington, Burnley, Blackburn, Nelson, Colne, Bacup, Brierfield, Darwen, and Rishton, and this role requires someone who is able and willing to travel between locations as needed.

ABOUT YOU

As part of this role, you will be expected to work confidently within a multi-agency framework, managing your own caseload and safeguarding responsibilities with diligence and care. You will be proficient in using a case management system to accurately record data, session notes, and outcomes, ensuring high standards of documentation and accountability.

We are looking for someone who can demonstrate our core values in every aspect of their work—showing mutual respect for everyone we support, collaborate with, and serve through our services. You will be working within the ethical framework and code of conduct of a recognised professional body, and must have experience supporting individuals affected by trauma, particularly in the context of sexual abuse and violence.

A strong understanding of risk management and safety planning is essential, along with exceptional communication skills and the ability to work with other key services and organisations. You will be able and willing to work in alignment with our policies and practices.

In return, you will be supported through regular case management, have access to CPD opportunities and be invited to Birchall events to help you grow and thrive.
