Job Description

Registered Charity No: 1109637 · Company Number: 5424196

AN INTRODUCTION TO BIRCHALL

The Birchall Trust empowers people affected by rape, sexual and domestic abuse, sexualised or domestic violence to recover from their trauma so they can lead safe and fulfilling lives irrespective of gender identity, sexuality, ethnicity, culture, or religion.

We believe that we should live in a society that is free of rape, sexual abuse, and sexualised violence and through a trauma informed approach we...

- Realise the potentially damaging consequences of traumatic experiences and the opportunities that exist for healing through safe relationships.
- Recognise the signs of trauma, and seek to address the underlying causes
- Respond with empathy, integrating the knowledge of trauma into our policies and practice.
- Resist retraumatising people and aim to deescalate the deep anxiety that adversity can cause.

.... assisting people to recover from their trauma, by enabling them to live in the present without being overwhelmed by the thoughts and feelings of the past.

OUR CORE TRAUMA INFORMED VALUES

Our values align to the core trauma informed principles around:

Safety	We recognise the impact of shame, we create safe spaces and make people feel safe, by building trusted relationships.
Trusted	We avoid judgement and understand shaming and blaming language can damage people and harm relationships. We are emotionally aware. We avoid blame. We believe and do not judge.
Choice	We ensure that the people using our services have a voice and their choices are important, we understand that everyone's experience matters, and that recovery is an individual experience and will be different for everyone.
Collaboration	We work together to achieve the best possible outcome, we are person centred and see the person's strengths, building upon them, we are reflective and learn together
Empowerment	We seek to make a difference, innovative and be the change we want to see. We make a difference, we are transparent, and take responsibility. We develop resilience enabling people to build on their strengths.

Job Title:	Trauma Informed Wellbeing Practitioner
Accountable to	Senior TI Wellbeing Practitioner
Base:	One post based in Cumbria and the other in Fylde Coast.
Salary:	£13,800
Hours:	Part-time (22.5 hours)
Leave:	25 days holiday per annum plus bank holidays (currently 8 per year). This is pro-rated for any employees working less than 37.5 hours per week.

ABOUT THE ROLE

We're looking for a Wellbeing Practitioner, to support people to reach their potential whilst delivering a trauma informed wellbeing service to join our team.

Providing practical support, advice, and guidance you will support a client's recovery and enable them to develop self-help strategies to manage the impact of their abuse. This may include support around housing, benefits, court procedures as well as psycho-educational support such as mindfulness, grounding, stabilization, and relaxation to help reduce the symptoms of trauma. Referrals may then go onto receive trauma informed counselling through Birchall's Adult and CYP counselling services.

You will have an opportunity to co-facilitate and support our Survivor's Involvement groups and our training/education programme, working alongside other members of the team. You will raise awareness of our services with other agencies and professionals to ensure effective referral pathways are in place.

ABOUT YOU

With experience of working with people who have experienced trauma, you will have skills and techniques able to work in a creative way, developing resources and contacts to support your role. You will need to effectively engage with people who may be at a difficult time in their lives, working with them to achieve positive and sustained change, to achieve emotional well-being and reach their full potential. An awareness or knowledge of de-escalation techniques to support people in crises would be useful.

You should have a good working knowledge of managing risk and safety planning and have exceptional communication skills and the ability to develop partnerships with other services and organisations.

You will utilise administrative and case management systems in a timely way, accurately and effectively ensuring good practice regarding any sensitive and confidential material.

WHY BIRCHALL?

Being a part of team Birchall is a rewarding and exciting experience. With full time and freelance team members across Cumbria, North Lancs, East Lancs, and the Fylde Coast, With numerous volunteers and people with lived experience, you'll join a strong team dedicated to supporting people affected by rape and sexual abuse.

Each year we campaign, fundraise and offer educational programmes as well as wellbeing services and group work activity sessions.

Our Volunteers

We have had some amazing people raise money and awareness for Birchall this year. From Running the Great North Run, talking to students at freshers' events, Walking the 3 peaks in one day and even joining us at the Keswick to Barrow Walk... we want to thank everyone who helps us support people affected by rape and sexual abuse this year!

What we offer

We recognise that each person using our services is an expert on their own emotional process and we aim to create an environment where people can develop trust in their own intuition and safety in a space where they can begin to explore their feelings and thoughts about their experience.

Our framework consists of 3 stages:

1. Stabilisation & Understanding

2. Processing & Acceptance

3. Integration & Engagement
