

Chief Executive (Rape and Sexual Abuse Charity)

Salary: £40-45,000 dependent on experience

Hours: 37.5 per week, worked flexibly to allow for occasional evening and weekend working

Location: To be divided between our offices in Barrow in Furness and Morecambe, with potential for some home working.

Additional Requirements: Hold a full driving licence and be able to travel as needed within the UK.

Tenure: Permanent subject to a successful probationary period

The Birchall Trust provides support, advice, and counselling to survivors of sexual trauma in South Cumbria and Lancashire regardless of gender or sexual orientation. The Trust aims to promote healthy sexual relationships by providing information and training as well as supporting families, friends and partners of victims.

We are now seeking a new Chief Executive Officer with a strong strategic background and a robust understanding of counselling, to motivate, inspire and lead the Birchall Trust through the next exciting phase of our strategic development.

The ideal candidate will:

- Demonstrate substantial senior management experience, preferably at Chief Executive level
- Have a proven track record in developing and delivering effective, high impact strategic plans
- Have previously worked in the third/ voluntary sector, preferably in the field of sexual trauma or a related area
- A strong and inspirational leader and team player, with experience of successfully managing and communicating organisational change
- Knowledge of charitable governance and experience of working closely with Trustees
- Have a proven track record of funding and income generation

Applications are invited by way of a CV and a cover letter.

Closing date: 14th September 2020

Interview date: TBC